

Community Resources (10% - Due February 10)

Alec Levin

It's easy to find organizations that provide a variety of social work services in Humboldt County. Your own knowledge, people you know, the telephone book, and resource guides can help. There's even an organization that specializes in collecting and sharing information about other organizations. It's called The Humboldt Community Switchboard and it is a particularly helpful resource. They have a database on their web page (www.theswitchboard.org) and volunteers who respond to phone calls (211). You could even volunteer to help out!

For this activity, find two (2) programs in Humboldt County—and not related to HSU—that provide services in each of the following areas. Some programs are housed within much larger organizations. Name the specific program, not the large organization a program is a part of.
